April 6, 2010

This Warden Notice is to remind U.S. citizens that routine consular services at the U.S. Consulate in Peshawar remain suspended until further notice. The Consular Section at the U.S. Embassy in Islamabad will provide all routine consular services for those Americans living in the Northwest Frontier Province. Due to the security situation movements by U.S. government personnel within this region are severely restricted, and the ability to provide emergency consular services to U.S. citizens in the Northwest Frontier Province is limited. The Embassy reiterates its advice to all U.S. citizens to take measures for their safety and security at all times.
