Subject: New myE-Verify Videos in English and Spanish!

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) announced the release of a new video in English and Spanish to promote awareness of myE-Verify. In the video, USCIS Director León Rodríguez explains how myE-Verify's features give users, workers and job seekers more transparency so that they can be involved in the employment eligibility verification process, and how the system improves their security so they can be more proactive in protecting their identity.

Other myE-Verify features highlighted in the video include:

- Self Lock and Case History put you in control of your identity in E-Verify and combat identity fraud.
- Self Check lets you confirm your own employment eligibility records.
- Case Tracker lets users follow the progress of their E-Verify case.
- The Resource Center has multi-media information about employee rights and employer responsibilities. Everyone should know their rights.

Please feel free to add the link to the English and Spanish versions of this video to your website and share this announcement.

The myE-Verify website gives workers a place in the employment eligibility verification process. myE-Verify is available in both English and Spanish. Workers will find free tools to protect their identity, track the status of their cases, and learn about their rights and employer responsibilities. Informed workers are empowered workers who protect themselves and also help improve the integrity of E-Verify.
